The most important branch of the Drug Business is concerned by all to be the PRESCRIPTION DEPARTMENT, and we desire to call the attention of the public to the fact that we make a specialty of compounding Physicians' Prescriptions, and guarantee all ingredients used by us to be absolutely PURE and FRESH. There is probably nothing about which mankind are so deservingly particular as the Medicines which sickness compels them to take, and the great desideratum is to feel assured that the Apothecary fully understands the preparation of the Physician's prescription. We guarantee accuracy and purity, at prices as low as quality of same will permit.

We make purchases from first hands, select Goods with special reference to wants of our customers, and make them at such prices as will ensure their ready sale. All we ask of our friends is that they call and look over our stock. It will be the constant aim of our House to please, and we shall spare no effort to do so.

We take the lead in Toilet Articles. You will find our Stock complete, and also find that a dollar will go further with us in buying such articles than you have ever before experienced. We invite your attention to a few of our Proprietary remedies, which we recommend to be reliable Medicines and worthy of a trial.

Wilhite's Soothing Syrup or Baby's Friend is an invaluable remedy for children when teething, regulating the bowels and relieving pain. It relieves the sufferer at once, produces natural sleep, by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is pleasant to take, soothes the child, relieves wind, and is the best known remedy for Diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or otherwise.

Wilhite's Cough Syrup—Cough, Cough, Cough. A cold neglected, a cough left to cure itself oftentimes leads to complications fatal in their results. A prompt visit to our store at the inception of the trouble, the use of Wilhite's Cough Syrup, which we can confidently recommend as a good remedy, will relieve much suffering and anxiety on the part of friends.

Many children suffer from day to day—feverish, cross and peevish—and the cause of their suffering is not suspected. A pallid and sickly countenance, irregularity of appetite or great voracity, bad breath, foul tongue, gradual emaciation, irritability of temper, redness of nostrils, disposition to be picking the nose, are all symptoms indicating the presence of Worms. If any of these symptoms are noticed or Worms are suspected, procure a bottle of WILHITE'S Worm Syrup or Vermifuge, which costs but 25 cents, and give it according to directions. If any Worms are present they will soon be expelled, and you will have the satisfaction of seeing your darling restored to health again. If there are no Worms present the Syrup will do no harm, but will give the bowels gently and leave the system in a healthy condition. This Syrup contains no Calomel, and no Castor Oil or purgative medicine is required with it. It should be in every family. Try it. The largest bottle of Worm Medicine in the market for 25c.

Wilhite's Eye Water is a sure cure for inflamed or Weak Eyes, or any ordinary form (where no mechanical or constitutional trouble exists) of Sore Eyes. It has been used with great success for a number of years, and amount paid for it will be refunded if it fails to cure any common form of Sore Eyes after directions have been carefully followed. If it does you no good it will cost you nothing. Price 25c per bottle.

CLEVELAND'S CABINET.

The Distinguished Men who Will Advise the President.

The following sketches of the members of Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet will be of interest:

THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

The Hon. Thomas Francis Bayard, of Delaware, is one of the best and most favorably known Democratic Statesmen in the United States. He has been in the Senate longer than any of the other Democratic Senators, and when he was called to the Cabinet by President Cleveland was serving his third term, and had been a Senator for sixteen years. He succeeded his father, He is in the front line in his family in the Senate. He will be 57 years of age the 29th of October. He does not look a day over 50. He is very tall, with a good, well-filled-out figure, although he is by no means stout. He has the front of his face open and plain, and simply, and the alert look of a young man of 25. His face is inclined to be long, while his features are angular. His forehead is broad and high and prominent. His nose is a pair of keen blue eyes. His hair is a light brown, and is smooth-shaven, leaving bare his pointed chin and squarely-lined jaws. He has very even white teeth, which might well be the envy of a man 30 years younger than he. He always dresses with great neatness, and is as careful in the selection of his gloves and boots as the most fashionable young man. He is a man of very pure private record. While he is not an interesting public speaker, on account of his lack of voice, yet he is always listened to with the greatest respect. His chief prominence in public life has been through the study and demonstration of financial topics. Although he is a member of the Senate Judiciary committee, he has made more reputation in the part he has taken as a member, and when the Democrats were in control, as the chairman of the finance committee. He is an uncompromising man, who would yield no principle where there was any sacrifice required of his ideas of personal honor. He is one of the highest minded men in public life. He has a moderate fortune of $150,000 to $200,000. This is the result of the natural increase of the inheritance left him by his father. He has two daughters and three sons, who are grown.

Mr. Bayard was born at Wilmington, Delaware. He received his education at the Flushing school. He had no collegiate education. He was admitted to the bar in 1850, and the only office that he ever held before he was elected to the Senate in 1859 was the office of District Attorney of Delaware, which office he held in 1853 and 1854. He was ranked as one of the best lawyers of Delaware. He has great dignity and conservatism, and will make a very satisfactory Secretary of State.

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.

The Hon. Daniel Manning, who has been chosen by President Cleveland as Secretary of the Treasury, was born in Albany, N. Y., August 16, 1831. His parents were of Irish, English and Dutch extraction. He was a poor boy, and his early opportunities for schooling were very limited. At 11 years of age he went to work as an office boy at the establishment of the Albany Atlas, which was afterwards merged into the Albany Argus, and he has ever since, in one capacity or another, been connected. In 1873 he assumed sole charge of the Argus, and was elected President of the company, which position he yet holds, although he has done little or no writing for some time. He was a member of the Democratic State Convention of 1874 that nominated Samuel J. Tilden for Governor, and was a delegate to the St. Louis Convention of 1876 that nominated Mr. Tilden for President. He has been a member of the Democratic State Committee since 1870. He was its Secretary in 1879 and 1880, and was elected chairman in 1881, which place he now fills. He was warmly interested in the election of Mr. Cleveland for President at Chicago last July, and it is generally conceded that he showed great skill in the Convention as the head of the New York delegation. Mr. Manning has been active and successful in the management of the Albany Argus, and has been a Director of the Albany Electric Light Company. Mr. Manning will bring at once high political ability to the aid of the President, and will be a valuable asset to the cabinet usually expected in the nation, his habits and pursuits in life have not been specially in that line. But his training has been of the kind to enable him to do what he wanted to do, and to do it well. He is an experienced editor, a successful banker and a man of the world on a large scale should be a good Cabinet officer.

THE SECRETARY OF WAR.

The Hon. William C. Brownell, of Wisconsin, who has been placed in President Cleveland's Cabinet, was born in 1828, and is the son of William Putnam Brownell and Mary, daughter of Hon. Jacob C. Brownell, who was a Representative to Congress. He attended the Salem schools, and was graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1847. He married his cousin, a daughter of George Peabody, and has two children, a son and a daughter. He studied at the Harvard Law School, and read law in the office of the late Nathaniel W. Brownell, who was admitted to the bar in 1850, and a few years later formed a partnership with the late J. W. Perry and continued with him until his appointment by Governor Washburn to a seat on the Supreme Bench in 1873. This position he held until 1882, when he resigned on account of his health. In 1882 he made an extended tour of the Continent. He was a member of the Salem common council in 1852, 1853 and 1857, when he was elected mayor of the city of Salem. He was city solicitor from 1858 to 1863. He is a member of the Historical Society and of the board of overseers of Harvard College. He is a direct descendant from Governor John Endicott. Political ally he is a Whig antecedent, his affiliation with the Democratic party dating from the Bell-Everett campaign of 1860, but he has never been an active politician. In 1884 he was the Democratic candidate for Governor of Massachusetts, but did not himself appear in the canvass, and received a comparatively small vote. As a lawyer and a Judge Mr. Endicott holds high rank, and personally he is a gentleman of the highest character.

THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY.

Mr. William C. Whitney, of New York, who has been placed at the head of the navy department by President Cleveland, is a tall, straight and exceedingly handsome man. He is forty-five years old but looks ten years younger. He is a son of Gen. James B. Whitney, of Massachusetts, who was a conspicuous figure in the Democratic Convention which met at Charleston in 1860, and is the ablest and most influential young lawyer and politician in the State of New York. Mr. Whitney was born at Conway, Mass., in 1840, graduated at Yale College in 1863, at Harvard Law School in 1864, and then went to New York, where he was at once admitted to the bar. He was at once admitted to the bar. He was at once admitted to the bar. He was at once admitted to the bar.

THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

The Hon. L. Q. C. Lamar, of Mississippi, who has been selected by President Cleveland as the Secretary of the Interior, is one of the most able statesmen in America. He was born in Lamar County, Georgia, September 15, 1825, and graduated at Emory College in 1845. He studied law at Macon, Ga., under the Hon. A. D. Chappell, and in 1847 was admitted to the bar. A few years later he moved to New York, and was elected Adjunct Professor of mathematics in the University of the State. In 1850 he returned to Covington, Ga., and in 1853 was elected to the Legislature of that State. He was elected to the United States Senate in 1860, and served until 1867.
